Drambuie

Prince Charlie's Liqueur

The origin of "DRAMBUIE" and the basis of its production give it a character distinct from other Liqueurs.

Brought to Scotland by a follower of Prince Charlie in 1745, the recipe was given to a MacKinnon of Skye, and the secret has ever since remained in one family. The MacKinnon of that day employed the materials which were available, and in place of Brandy a fine old Whisky was used. This, along with heather honey and herbal ingredients of recognised value as aids to digestion produced a Liqueur which soon gained the post of honour on the tables of Highland Aristocracy, and is now known world-wide.

AUSTRALIA RECOVER AFTER POOR START

WOODFULL DISMISSED FOR SEVEN RUNS

MCCABE PLAYS DELIGHTFUL INNINGS FOR 127 NOT OUT

(THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.)

SYDNEY, December 2.

Play in the first Test Match between Australia and the M.C.C. began this morning before a large crowd full of the usual Test Match fever in fine, but cool weather. The wicket was on the fast side and play opened very quietly.

Woodfull won the toss and decided to take first lease of the wicket.

The Australian team opened weakly, but at the close of play their score stood at 290 for six wickets.

VOCE AND LARWOOD OPEN M.C.C. BOWLING

Jardine entrusted the new ball to Larwood and Voce. Voce was bowling over the wicket with a leg trap, having no fewer than five short legal.

The result of this manoeuvre was that scoring was slow and only twelve runs were put on in the first half hour.

Thirty-eight minutes from the commencement, the Australian captain, W. M. Woodfull, having at this stage scored seven runs, swung at a high-ticker from Voce and only managed to nick the ball, being taken snootily by Ames. The scoreboard showed 23 for 1.

A Protest.—Before leaving, Woodfull protested against G. O. Allen, who had taken the ball from Larwood, finishing his run on the wicket, thereby cutting it up.

Woodfull, who had partnered Larwood in opening, was joined by Fingleton. He batted very cautiously taking no risks. He turned Larwood to leg to send up the first fifty runs, at the end of 75 minutes play.

Fingleton was very restrained, also, and the pair kept their wickets intact until the lunch interval. Ponsford had scored 32 and Fingleton 13.

Voce Hurt.—In the course of the morning, Voce, in holding a quick return, split a finger on his right hand, but returned to the field after attention.

There were 17,000 spectators present when the game was resumed after lunch and they were provided with quick sensations.

Two runs had been added, neither of them credited to Ponsford when Australia met with her second disaster of the day.

Ponsford Bowled.—Ponsford was clean bowled by Larwood, the wicket being uprooted with a terrifically fast ball, 55-3-32.

Seventeen runs later, Fingleton fell a victim to Larwood. He was caught by Allen in the slips. He had made 33 runs, 82-3-38.

Joined by McCabe, Kippax was always in difficulties and at eighty-seven he stepped into a straight ball from Larwood and was given out l.b.w. 87-4-8.

45,000 Spectators.

A crowd of 45,000 witnessed the match. Larwood's second ball swerved in and bowled Ponsford for 32.

After a confident opening, when he looked set, after 100 minutes, Fingleton was caught at short-leg of the last ball of Larwood's third over, for 28. He batted for 72 minutes, in which he hit three 4's.

Kippax showing no shadow of his old artistic form was finally l.b.w. by Larwood for 8. Larwood's bowling analysis after lunch read:—

O. M. T. W.

1 2 18 3

McCabe sent up the 100th run in 144 minutes. He then sent Voce twice to the boundary in succession.

The brightest cricket of the day was given by McCabe and Richardson. The score at the tea interval being 154 for 4.

Wood Disapproves.—The crowd disapproved the bumpy tactics and frequently booed Voce and Larwood who struck Ponsford on his hip and Kippax's hand.

After Tea.—Verity and Larwood opened the bowling after the tea interval. Richardson brightened up and sent Larwood for a four twice in succession in his first over. McCabe scored 50 runs in 90 minutes, hitting 6 fours.

This dramatic change in fortunes put the crowd in a good humour. The partnership adding 100 runs in 92 minutes.

McCabe crashed a full-toss from Voce to the boundary, 200 runs in 231 minutes.

Richardson Out.—McCabe had scored 75, when Richardson hit Voce to the leg only to be caught by Hammond by a magnificent catch at square-leg for 49 (216 for 5). This partnership collected 121 runs and saved Australia from ignominy.

Oldfield skied and Ames ran to fine leg to hold a simple catch from Larwood's fourth ball (220 for 6).

A Test Match.

McCabe scored his 100 in a delightful innings in which he used his wrists, feet and shoulders judiciously. He pierced a well-placed field, playing strong on the leg-side, and driving a ball from Allen past cover, he reached his 100 runs in 191 minutes. He hit 13 fours in a classical impenetrable defence.

McCabe had been at the wicket for 194 minutes, during which he hit 17 fours.

Grimmett played a stolid innings for 17 runs not out.

At the close of play the attendance had reached 46,700, which is a Test Match record for a Friday. (Continued at foot of next column)

LATEST MOVE IN GERMAN POLITICS

VON SCHLEICHER TO FORM CABINET

(THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.)

BERLIN, Dec. 2. PRESIDENT Hindenburg has invited General von Schleicher to form a government, which he has accepted.

Reuter understands the new Cabinet will comprise of von Neurath as Foreign Minister, and Count Schwerinkrosigk, Finance Minister. The remaining posts will be occupied by men, but it is not certain whether Gen. von Schleicher will retain the Ministry of Defence.

It is understood that Gen. von Schleicher proposes to abandon temporarily, any attempt to revise the Constitution while adopting a policy of compromise with other parties, thus hoping to avoid open warfare against the Reichstag.

The Government is likely to have considerable support when it faces the Reichstag next week, but without a majority as the Nazis and Communists are both hostile. The Socialist attitude depends on the acceptability of the Government's programme.

Should the Reichstag adopt a vote of no confidence it is probable that Hindenburg will authorize the Government to continue in office like the von Papen Cabinet.

MACHINERY FOR SILK MILL IN HONAM

EQUIPMENTS TO ARRIVE IN THREE MONTHS

As a step to revive the silk market and the weaving industry of South China, the Bureau of Reconstruction has proposed the establishment of a silk weaving mill, a hemp mill, and a cotton spinning mill on Honan Island. Messrs. Dang Pi Yen and Leo Ku, who were sent to Shanghai to purchase machinery for the silk mill, returned to Canton recently and reported that over 200 sets of machines were purchased at a total cost of over $150,000 and that this machinery will be delivered within three months.

The silk mill, it is reported, will be situated near the Honan Cement Works. Construction of the mill will be undertaken immediately. The hemp and cotton mills will be erected near the silk mill in the middle part of next year, at which time machinery from England will be delivered. The raw silk of Kwangtung will be spun by the silk mill.

$5 MILLION CEMENT FACTORY

TO BE BUILT IN KWEICHOW

In order to meet the demand for cement for roadmaking in Kweichow, the local headquarters of the 4th Group Army has formulated plans for the construction of a cement factory at a suitable site in Kweichow province. An engineer from Canton will proceed to survey the mineral deposits of Kweichow, which are reported to be very rich.

The proposed Kweichow cement works will be built at the cost of $5,000,000, and when completed it will have a daily output of 1,000 barrels.

ENGINEERING AND BUILDING

ENGINEERING AND THE EMPIRE

ECONOMY AND ENTERPRISE

The Rt. Hon. the Earl of Elgin, in proposing the toast of the evening at the James Watt dinner of the Institution of Engineers and Shipbuilders in Scotland, had to speak to the subject of Engineering and the Empire. It was stated, said Lord Elgin, that ours was an Empire on which the sun never set—the same might well be said of engineering. The initial letter of the two words called to mind two other words both prominent in our minds, namely, economy and enterprise. Enterprise was the keynote of engineering. The Suez Canal had altered the whole outlook of the world. He thought the opening up of the St. Lawrence Waterway, adding as it would some 3,000 miles of coast line to the United States and Canada, was bound to have far-reaching effects. Although much tonnage was laid up at present, he believed that the Empire would still remain dependent upon a great and efficient mercantile marine, possibly somewhat changed from what we had known. It might be that the future would not see so much attention paid to the working of the round trip as to prompt delivery by means of faster ships.

The Copenhagen Exhibition.

The exhibition at Copenhagen, from which he had just returned, was an example of successful enterprise. Agriculture was an important industry awaiting development by engineering enterprise, and in that connection he was glad to see that a Doctor of Science, Major Walter Elliot, had been made Minister of Agriculture. Major Elliot, in responding to the toast, said that 90 per cent. of the Government's attention at the present time was probably occupied with economy, but for all that, enterprise was no less imperative. It was necessary for both the Government and business men to examine more searching than ever the circumstances of industry. It was a good sign that, in spite of all the post-war catastrophes which it had faced, the engineering industry still kept heart.

Past Oris Recalled.

The Scott Centenary had just been celebrated, and it was an interesting fact that at the end of Sir Walter Scott's life the state of industry had seemed more gloomy than ever before, while there were added troubles from internal dissensions due to the enfranchisement of the masses. Of any such divisions we were, fortunately, free. In an industrial community the ups and downs came and went more quickly than in an agricultural civilisation. We were now entering upon a new place through the Ottawa agreements. This experiment might succeed or it might not. One thing, however, was certain, and that was that to-day it was not a choice between Ottawa and the revival of our Nineteenth-Century trade, but between Ottawa and nothing, for the reason that other nations had excluded our trade. It should now be our main object to extend those areas in which our trade might flourish. Mr. R. H. Green, president of the Shipbuilding Employers' Federation, who also replied to this toast, said he was sufficient of an optimist to believe that, owing to the watchfulness of the Government, we were now somewhat on the up grade. Both in technique and in enterprise British engineers would be found in the front rank, he thought, when trade once more began to flow. Commander Craven proposed the toast of the Chairman, Mr. A. Gilchrist, O.B.E., and the latter, in acknowledgment, said that he hoped that men now out of employment would keep themselves abreast of developments so as to be ready for work when it came to them. He feared that even now there was at least a glimmer of light. Engineering.

THE IMPROVEMENT OF STREET LIGHTING

WHAT HAS BEEN DONE IN 200 YEARS

Nearly 200 years ago a London magistrate, one Henry Fielding, wrote Tom Jones, and thus, according to Gibbon, made it certain that his name would continue to be remembered when that of the mighty and collateral house of Hapsburg had faded into obscurity. Otherwise he might have gone down to posterity as the inventor of public street lighting, since it was he who insisted that householders should place lamps outside their dwellings, and thus assist the Bow-street runners to counteract the depredations of foot-pads. The fact that so famous an author had so practical a turn of mind has an interest other than the historical and the psychological.

Fielding's Policy.

For by connecting persons and property in the way he did, Fielding laid down a policy with regard to this public service which has been consciously or unconsciously followed down to the most modern times. The result of lighting streets to prevent crime has, in fact, been that little attempt has been made to provide such a standard of illumination as would enable all classes of traffic to move about with the same freedom as in daylight, and has imposed on vehicles, and sometimes even on foot passengers, the necessity of carrying lights of sufficient intensity to permit them to proceed with safety.

Oil Lamps and Reflectors.

That this is so, as was pointed out by Lieut.-Commander Haydn T. Harrison in the presidential address which he delivered to the Illuminating Engineering Society in 1928, when Matherot de Prugney and Bourgeois de Chateaublanc developed street lanterns embodying oil lamps and polished metal reflectors which gave a light so intense that a person could be recognised 30 paces away, the standard of illumination in a large proportion of our streets and the technical methods employed to secure it have not progressed at all. In fact, the only important advance in street lighting has, again until recently, been in the nature of light sources, and not in their application. The reasons for this are two. One we have already mentioned, while the other is that, perhaps rightly and perhaps wrongly, it was felt that to pay out good money on providing anything more than a glimmer was bad finance.

Rapid Progress.

The successive replacement of luminous flame burners by upright mantles, inverted mantles and high-pressure gas, and of Jablochkov candles, arc lamps and vacuum lamps by gas-filled units, together with the possibility that the latter will also disappear in favour of arc discharge through inert gases contained in glass envelopes, has, however, meant such a cheapening of the light sources that the cost of the energy is often less than the maintenance and capital costs and there is now no reason why a bountiful supply of luminous energy should not be provided whenever artificial lighting is required. The complicated problems of how best to provide illumination on the scale which is implied in the preceding statement is, as Commander Harrison rightly pointed out, primarily the concern of the illuminating engineer, and he is tackling it with vigour.

But the public must learn to help themselves, and by allowing existing buildings to be used as fixtures for the lighting units must facilitate that increase in the number of points which provides the best and most economical illumination without the introduction of unnecessary obstacles. Engineering.

KWANGTUNG RAIL- WAY LINES

COMMITTEE FOR JOINT CONTROL

PROPOSED FOR ALL THREE LINES

Canton.—The three lines of the Chinese National Railways in this city, the Canton-Kowloon, Canton-Shiuchow and the Canton-Samsui, are under separate management. Sometime ago, the Provincial Government appointed a Purchasing Commission for all the three lines and this Commission has been working very satisfactorily and has facilitated all matters in connection with purchases of the three lines.

Encouraged by this success, it is proposed that a large Committee be appointed for the general management of all the three lines. The opinion of the present directors of the lines is being asked for, and in case the general opinion favours such a new Committee, steps will be taken for its early inauguration. These directors will become members ex-officio of the proposed Committee according to the present plans.

Improvements to Canton-Hankow Lines.

Mr. Li Sin Kan, managing director of the Canton-Shiuchow and Canton-Samsui sections of the Canton-Hankow Railway, is reported to have received advice from the Ministry of Railways in Nanking to the effect that a sum of £30,000 has been obtained from the British Boxer Indemnity Fund Commission in connection with repairs and general improvements to the two sections of the Railway. The sum will be remitted here in due course. The appropriation now granted is the result of the efforts of Director Li, who sometime ago went up to Nanking personally to impress upon the Ministry the absolute need for certain repairs and improvements to his lines in order to bring the services up-to-date.

FINDING THE HARDEST ROAD

A TEST WITH HAMMERS

Hammers have been dropped on to roads from varying heights in an attempt to find the hardest material from which to make roads.

Thus one of the experiments described in an official report on road surface.

The hammer dropping showed that "road material becomes somewhat more resilient, or harder, in the wheel tracks as compared with the other parts of the road."

Tests to find a non-skid road surface have been carried out with a motor-cycle combination. "The machine used for the work," the report continues, "has given very satisfactory results, but has proved incapable of withstanding the heavy duty imposed upon it without considerable expenditure on maintenance."

"The spokes came out of the back wheel, the sidecar chassis broke, and there was insufficient engine power. Consequently a new machine had to be bought, and with this tests are being continued."—Reuter.

YUNG RIVER POWER PLANT SITE

Mr. Lin Yun Kai, Chairman of the Kwangtung Provincial Government, proposes to make a tour of the north-eastern region of the province next month to select a suitable site on the Yung River for the installation of a hydro-electric plant, it is reported.

Mr. Hsieh Ying Chow, Provincial Educational Commissioner, who returned from an inspection-tour of the schools in the east region, may accompany Mr. Lin on his trip.

Mr. Hsu Shung Ching, member of the Kwangtung Provincial Council, will leave soon for the east region to complete his inspection-tour of the district governments of that region.

ENGINEERING AND BUILDING

NEW POWER HOUSE FOR MANILA

FOR BALATOE MINING COMPANY

Manila.—On a site adjoining the recently expanded mill of the Balatoe Mining Company, foundations are being prepared for the erection of a steel power house, 45 by 55 feet which will soon arrive from the United States.

In this new power house will be installed the first unit of additional power which will take up the dry season load. This unit, which will arrive shortly, consists of two 625 h.p. Worthington Diesel engines; and two 500 k.w. G. E. generators which will deliver 830 k.w. at the mine elevation of 3,000 feet.

Provision will be made in the new power house for a second unit if required. Owing to the expansion of mines and mills at both Balatoe and Autanok a power load is being pulled that is beyond the capacity of the Agno River power plant especially in the season of low water.

Storage Tank Installed.

Orders have placed for a 150,000 gallon tank for the storage of fuel oil, which will be installed on the hill overlooking the mill, giving a gravity flow to the power house. This new tank will increase the storage especially to 185,000 gallons.

Work is steadily progressing on the drain tunnel, from which ultimately all ore will be taken from the mine to the mill. This tunnel has now advanced 4,400 feet from the portal, which is across the river from the mill site. When the drain tunnel meets the shaft at 5,700 feet, all further work will be (Continued on next column.)

SULPHURIC ACID WORKS PLANNED

The Bureau of Reconstruction is working on plans for the establishment in the province of a sulphuric works. It has been estimated that a sum of over $620,000 will be required to set up the proposed works which will be able to produce 15 tons of sulphuric acid daily. This quantity will be sufficient for the industrial needs of the province at the present moment. It is also hoped that with the commodity procurable locally, an impetus will be given to industrial enterprises. It is hoped that the present plans for the works will be put into operation early next year.

suspended until the shaft is raised.

It is expected that this point will be reached next February. This shaft, which will be six by six feet, will connect all levels of the mine. Three storage raises will be driven at the same time that work starts on the shaft.

All ore from the mine will be dumped in these storage raises when they are completed.

According to the estimates of H. W. Evans, general superintendent and acting general manager, the mine will be able to deliver all ore through the tunnel by August 1, thereby eliminating the use of the over-head tram from the mine to the mill.

At the mine a duplicate of the Ingersoll Rand compressor will be installed sometime towards the end of December. This will increase the air capacity to 24,000 cubic feet.

KWANGTUNG GOVT. WEAVING WORKS

SILK MANUFACTORY TO BE ESTABLISHED NEXT YEAR

With reference to the plans of the Kwangtung Provincial Government for the establishment of a number of weaving works in the province with the object of meeting needs of the public in getting home-made clothing materials, it is learned that the two representatives of the Reconstruction Bureau, who went up to Shanghai to investigate industrial conditions, have concluded the purchases of the necessary machinery for the silk weaving works which will be the first to be opened. A site for this plant has been chosen in Honan in the vicinity of the present Government Cement Works, and it is stated that work in connection with the building of the factory and the installation will be taken up immediately so that the works may be expected to operate beginning with June next year.

Plans are also under consideration for the opening of the other factories, those for the weaving of cotton cloths. The Reconstruction Bureau is negotiating for the purchase of the machinery of these latter factories from Great Britain and it is expected that these works may also be established at an early date. They will if possible be located in the same area as that of the silk works.

The Reconstruction Bureau plans that, as far as possible, all materials used in connection with these works should be local products from the province itself. In the building of these factories, the Government is taking a lead and expects thus to interest private capital in the industrial development of the province, which has so far been totally neglected.

THE TREASURY AND "DUMMY" GUNS

REFUSAL TO PUBLISH A LETTER

An effort was made in the House of Commons to "draw" the Treasury in regard to the disclosure made in the Daily Express of the proposal to send ships of the British Navy to sea with guns that could not fire.

But the Treasury refused to be drawn. Mr. Rorer asked for the publication of the letter which staggered the admirals by its objection to expenditure on equipment without which the naval guns would have been useless.

Mr. Hore-Belisha replied that the letter did not bear the interpretation put on it. But he refused to publish it.

"The Chancellor of the Exchequer," he said, "does not propose to depart from the usual practice: that letters from the Treasury to departments on financial matters should not, in the public interest, be published."

The disclosure to which the question referred was made in a report of the Select Committee on Public Funds, and related to a period in 1930, when the Socialist Government was in power.

There was then a difference of opinion between the Treasury and the Admiralty over expenditure on director equipment for firing the guns of the battleships Nelson and Rodney.

"The Treasury took the view," said Sir Oswyn Murray, Permanent Secretary of the Admiralty, in his evidence before the committee, "that, as nobody expected there was going to be a war for ever so many years, it did not matter whether the guns in the ships were able to be fired or not."

DIVORCE COURT RIGHT

REVIVED

CAN ENFORCE ITS OWN

ALIMONY ORDERS

London, October 30. — Judgment summonses regarding the payment of alimony were heard for the first time since 1883 by a Divorce Court judge.

The jurisdiction which the court
formerly possessed has been restored by the Debtors' Act (Matrimonial Causes) Jurisdiction Order, which was passed last July.

These judgment summonses have been heard for forty-nine years by Chancery Division judges. The new order giving the Divorce Court power to enforce its own orders was made after Mr. Justice Clayton and the Master of the Rolls (Lord Hanworth) had commented on the procedure.

It is anticipated that this restoration of the powers of Divorce Court judges will have the effect of reducing costs and expediting
the enforcement of orders.

Husband Warned.

The President, Lord Merrivale, dealt with four summonses. He made orders in all the cases, or accepted undertakings by husbands to pay sums towards the reduction of arrears. In one case he ordered a husband to observe an undertaking to pay arrears of 28s within a week.

"If he does not pay," said Lord Merrivale, "he will be committed to goal for two months."

Lord Merrivale, after making the orders, said that he thought the duty of dealing with these matters had properly been transferred to the Divorce Division, the place where the domestic relations of parties were primarily dealt with.

WONDERFUL GOWN

That Hollywood is rapidly displacing Paris as the fashion centre of the world is evidenced by the daring new gown creation, Constance Bennett wears in "What Price Hollywood," the latest RKO Pathe production which is being shown for the last time to-day at the Central Theatre. The gown is a complete departure from the customary evening dress. The short bodice and skirt, of which and silver lame cloth, are completely divorced, with a band of very thin flesh-colored soffit cloth at the waist. This gown at once brings to mind the early Egyptian woman's costume of the abbreviated bodice and separate skirt which left the waist bare. It also harks of the South Sea Islands where the girls manage to get along for years with only a tapa cloth and lo!

"What Price Hollywood" is an absorbing insight into the film Capitol. Others in the cast besides Constance Bennett, are Neil Hamilton, Lowell Sherman and Gregory Rattoff.

"MOVIE CRAZY"

HAROLD LLOYD AT HIS BEST

Our representative attended yesterday at a private show at the King's Theatre of "Movie Crazy" which is an extraordinarily amusing play. Harold Lloyd comes up from the country to try and star at films. Incidentally in reply to a letter from Hollywood, he encloses a wrong photograph. He strolls into many studios where he inspects everybody and invariably gets removed.

Finally he has a fight to death with a man, which is duly shot by the cameras, the director having been knocked by falling debris, and in conclusion he is given a contract for his impromptu acting. "Movie Crazy" is well put on, the acting is good, and Harold Lloyd's facial expressions are as good as ever. Miss Constance Cummings acts well with him.

We strongly recommend this picture which starts at the King's to-day.

"MISCHIEF"

AT THE KING'S

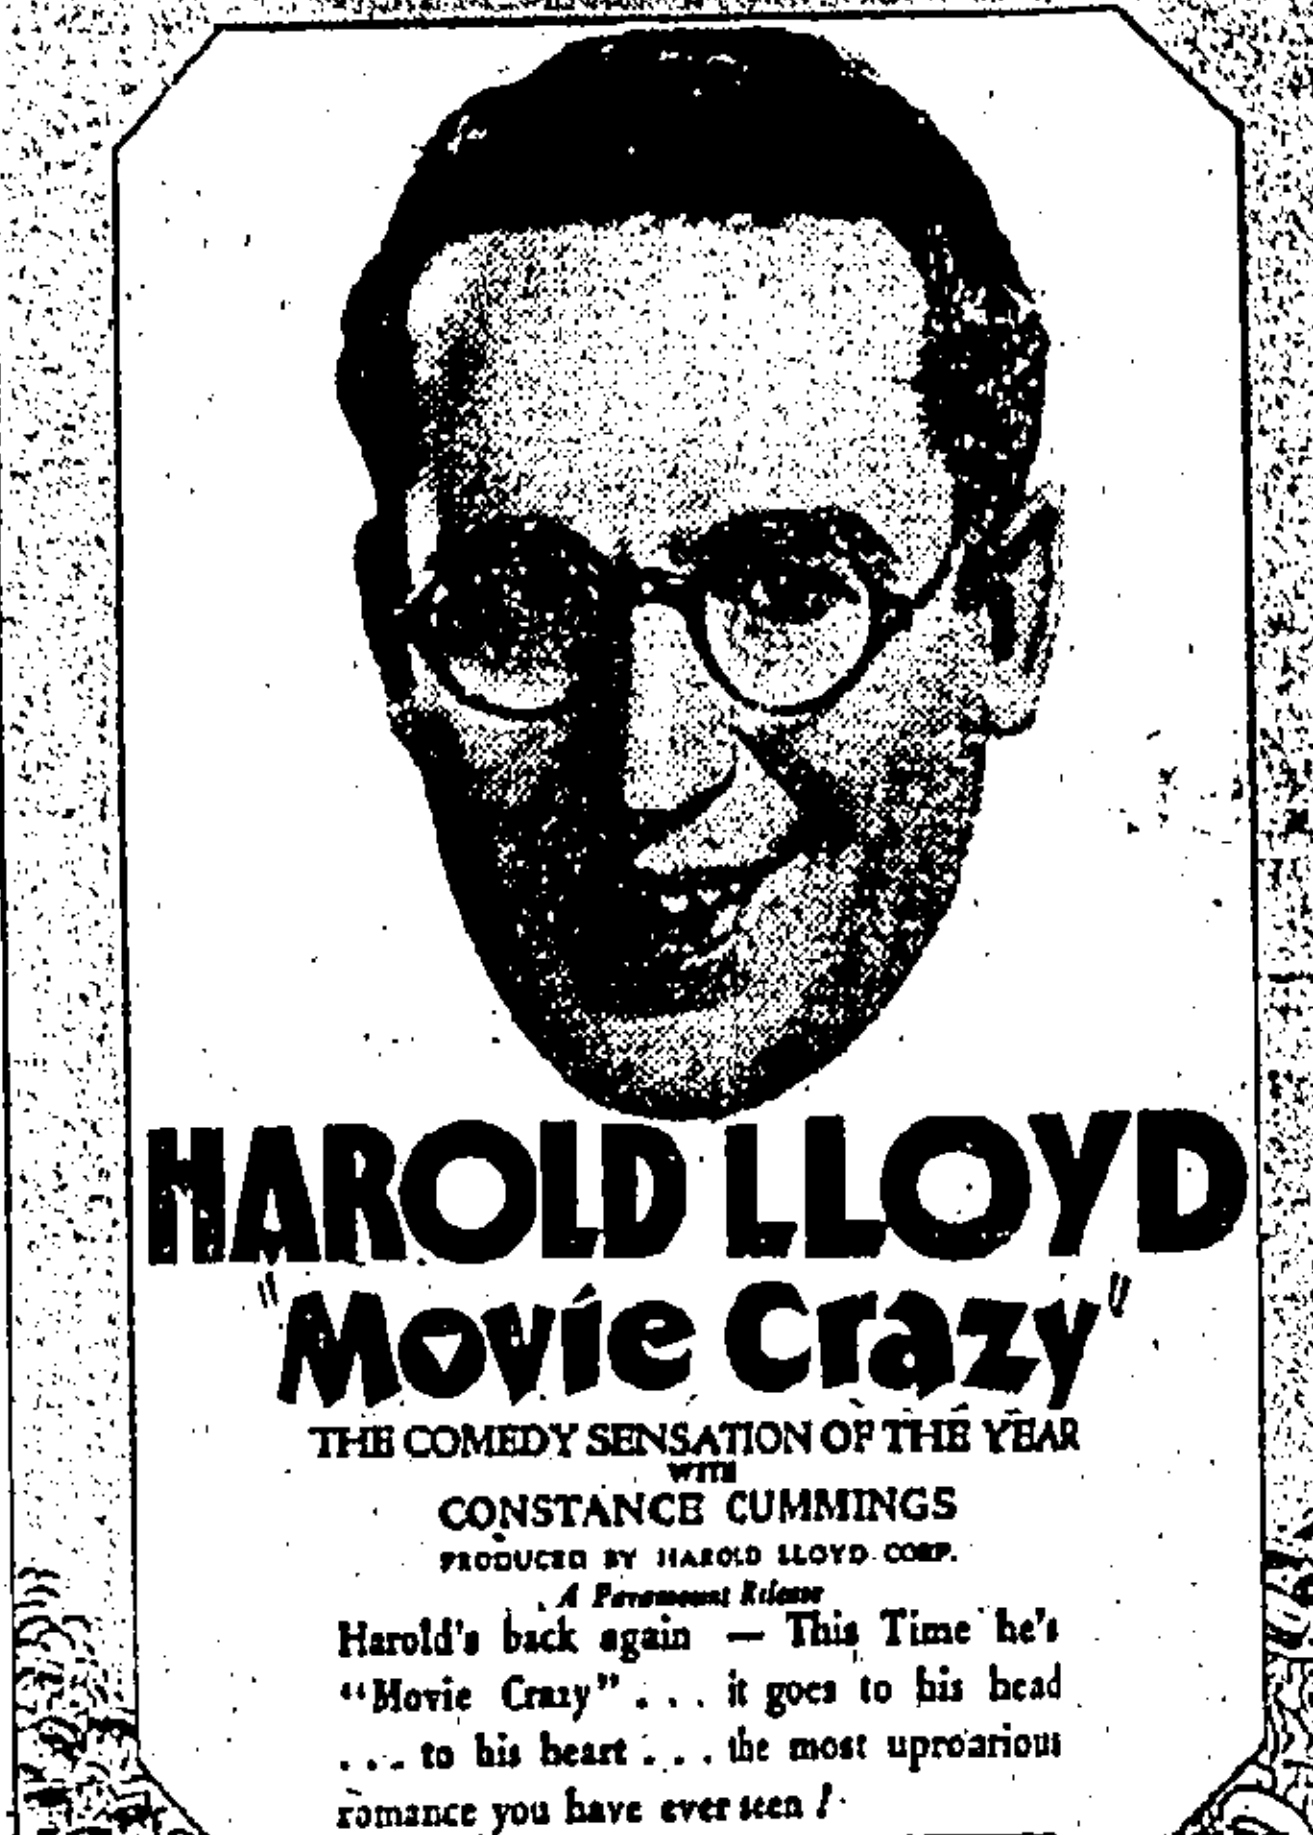

"Mischief," which will be shown at the King's Theatre next Friday. This far-named is a British and Dominion production featuring Ralph Lynn, who has established himself as Britain's leading screen comedian. The story by Ben-Travers is in the style of "Rookery Nook," "Plunder" and other famous Aldwych stage successes, and maintains the audience in a simmer of merriment throughout its length. Ralph Lynn is provided with one of his characteristic parts in the development of which he is seen at his very best. The film uproariously describes a matrimonial complication into which Lynn obtrudes with his customary eagerness and excellent intentions. Naturally, he complicates the issues, but in good-time runs against Winifred Shotter and forgets all about his mission, falling in love with the charming girl. It all ends happily, the end of the film being more than ludicrously ridiculous in the Ralph Lynn sense. The famous comedian is supported by Winifred Shotter and a fine cast, which includes James Carew, Jeanne Stuart, Jack Hobbs, Maud Gill, Bromley Davenport, Kenneth Kove and Louise Emery.

THE FOLIES BERGERE

SAVAGE ATTACK BY FAMOUS
U.S. PUBLICIST

One of the most savage attacks ever made on an "institution" of one country by a journalist of another has appeared in the "New York American."

Mr. O. O. McIntyre, the writer, is one of the most famous "columnists" in the United States. Returning from a recent visit abroad, he filled his column with the following:

"The most impertinently brazen, gyp for Americans in Paris is the over-publicised theatrical attraction—Folies Bergeres. Gyp is too mild. It is a barbarian rout."

"The banditry begins at the box office where, if you ask for good seats, they blandly point to a spiculator's coop across the street."

"Tarzans."

"A group of Tarzans snatch your hat and cane immediately inside the door, no matter the protests. Programme passers tell you they paid three-francs for programmes. And naturally expect a pourboire."

"So conscientiously calculating and insolent is it all you are in an indignant lather when you come to the ushers, most shameless brigandesses of the lot."

"I bestowed two francs, a generous largesse, in the twitching palm of the huzzy who escorted us. She blocked our path to seats, demanding more."

"Gently I edged her to one side when my unworthy inclination was to kick out her teeth. Then she stood there in a fine rage delivering imprecations with machine-gun rat-a-tat."

"Naturally, I was too hydrophobic to enjoy the show. Even if good. But it was shoddy, disgustingly vulgar, stressing the stark nudity of the over-plump and featuring two skits with decadent themes."

Police Indifferent.

"After the play it was in fun to watch the cocottes, waiting to make pick-ups. They were in flamboyant gowns, sleekly coiffed, extravagantly perfumed."

"A healthy English boy escorting an elderly lady was besieged. In the awkward confusion of his years, he blushed furiously. But a villainess still pursued him across the street to his taxi."

BRITISH REPLY TO
U.S. NOTE

This has led to a drain on the gold reserves of many countries and has forced down the price of commodities in terms of gold currencies, causing widespread ruin to producers in debtor and creditor countries alike, and seriously increasing the burden of commercial debts.

It has rendered intolerable the peculiar burden of unproductive war debts.

The withdrawal of credits from Germany and the consequent movements of capital forced the United Kingdom to abandon the gold standard, with worldwide results. Thus we feel that the effects of these unnatural transfers have gravely accentuated the difficulties of all five continents.

Confidence and credit cannot revive until an end has been put to these attempts to force the stream of capital uphill.

In a Similar Position.

Referring to the possible criticism that any remission of war debts would merely transfer the liability from the taxpayer in the borrowing country to the taxpayer in the lending country, the Note points out that in this respect the Relative Positions.

The relative position is that the United States made loans of £2,005,000,000 and the United Kingdom made similar loans of £1,000,000,000. The United States have received £434,000,000 and the United Kingdom nothing, having passed on all their receipts to the United States, as well as £134,000,000 in addition.

When interest is taken into account, some £200,000,000 has been found by the British taxpayer.

While the British share of total indebtedness to the United States is only 40 per cent. of the total of payments made to the United States, 80 per cent. has come from Britain.

Coming as they did after losses resulting from the war, these effects constitute, in the view of His Majesty's Government, a strong claim to consideration.

Regarding the changes of circumstances which have increased the burden of Britain's obligations, it is pointed out:

Change of Circumstances.

Firstly, the British debt is expressed in terms of gold, but the burden on the British people is measured in terms of sterling. Consequently the payment on December 15 is increased from £10,750,000 to approximately £30,000,000.

Secondly, the average wholesale price index in the United States during the period when the debt was incurred was 139, and is now under 94. The debt thus represents to-day, in terms of goods, not less than twice the amount borrowed.

Amazing Fall in Trade.

United States imports into the United Kingdom show an usually remarkable fall from £311,000,000 in 1923 to £59,000,000 in the first nine months of 1932. The total trade between the two countries since the funding agreement has fallen from about £300,000,000 to £100,000,000 yearly.

The United Kingdom has up to the present generally been America's best customer, but if the war debt payments had to be resumed, the heavy adverse balance of visible trade, amounting to £78,000,000 in 1931, would have to be reduced by adopting measures which would further restrict British purchases of American goods.

Therefore, if payments were resumed to the United States Treasury, a definite loss must follow to the United States producer.

Lausanne.

Touching on the Lausanne settlement, the Note says if the payment of war debts due to the United States Government were to be resumed, the British Government would be obliged to reopen the question of payment from their own debtors—France, Italy, Portugal, Yugoslavia, Roumania and Greece, and also the British Dominions, which have been suspended since the Lausanne Conference. The debtor countries would in turn have to demand payment by Germany of her obligations under the Young Plan.

Fatal Results Possible.

Without readjustment of the war debt obligations, the Lausanne agreement could not be ratified, the question of reparations would remain unsettled, the improvement in confidence which followed the Lausanne agreement would be undone, and fatal results might well be found to have accrued to the solution of the many grave political as well as financial problems now under discussion.

The proposal for a suspension of the December payment, which would in no way affect any ultimate settlement, is necessary to create a condition favourable to the successful issue of subsequent debt conversations.

The reserves of the British Government in gold and foreign exchange, though adequate for the modification of exchange fluctuations, were not intended and would not suffice to cover as well the payment of £805,500,000.

A NEW VENTURE: THE WOMEN'S INTERNATIONAL CLUB

ATTRACTIVE AND CENTRAL PREMISES SECURED

FOR WOMEN OF ALL CREEDS AND RACES

"To be educated," said Mr. Baldwin in a recent speech, "we must know enough of the other man's job to understand the part he is playing in life, and to play our own part in sympathy with him."

Ever since the War when millions of men of various nations without any personal enmity went out to slaughter one another, there has been a growing desire among many nations to avoid another calamity of such magnitude by learning to play their part in sympathy with that of others and to learn their point of view. There have been and are many setbacks in the development of this International spirit, but it is now deep-rooted in the hearts of a large percentage of the human race. There are great movements like the League of Nations working for peace and understanding, but there is room too for the small circle of "internationally-minded people"—a nucleus which is not to be despised.

This is one aspect of life that has inspired the opening of the Blue Triangle Women's International Club. Hong Kong and Kowloon, with their geographical cleavages tend to keep groups of people in water-tight compartments and the only way of overcoming these difficulties is by having a meeting place in a central position.

high ideals, happy outlook and sense of humour, we feel the Club should flourish and become the rallying point for women of all nationalities and all creeds and of diverse interests.

Our premises have been most skillfully planned out by Lt.-Col. Bird, who has taken great personal interest in the matter. The amenities offered are facilities for tiffin, tea and rest, reading and writing room, changing rooms and shower, two bedrooms for transient accommodation in time of typhoons, and an Employment Bureau—an important piece of service which we can render to working women. We trust that this Club will prove a centre for many friendly affairs of a cultural and recreational nature and that in this meeting place friendships will be formed leading to a fuller and deeper understanding among the women and girls of this Colony.

Lady Peel, Patroness of the Club.

Lady Peel has kindly consented to be our Patroness and we appreciate very much her valuable advice and practical interest in our preliminary work.

As regards ways and means we have received an initial generous gift of $12,000 from Mr. Tang Shiu Kin and his friends. We require

FIVE PRINCIPAL REASONS

WHY HONG KONG NEEDS THE BLUE TRIANGLE CLUB

1. To supply a centre for Rest and Refreshment for Business and Professional Women (and others) in the heart of the City.
2. To supply a Headquarters (and occasional accommodation) to many women travellers through the Colony.
3. To supply an Employment Bureau to help those who need work and those who need workers.
4. To provide a place for Recreational and Cultural Activities.
5. To provide a meeting place for the many nationalities in the Colony.

An Investigation has proved the great need there is for such a Club. Attractive Premises have been reserved in the new

NATIONAL AND COMMERCIAL SAVINGS BANK

(6th floor and roof).
Corner of Des Vaux Road and Lee House Street.

$20,000 is required for Structural Requirements, Equipment and

We hope in Six Months to be in possession of these Premises but it will depend upon how each of our well-wishers responds to this culties is by having a meeting place in a central position.

But its origin lies in the needs of business and professional women who expressed a desire for a place where they could enjoy rest, light refreshment and relaxation during their tiffin hour. The strain of working in the centre of a city is great and many workers look forward to this Club as a peaceful spot in which they can have a simple meal and then read, meet their friends and exchange ideas with other members. The business girl's lunch hour does not admit of her returning to her home if she lives at any distance except in a rush which is certainly bad for her health and peace of mind. The advantages of the Club from the business and professional women's point of view, especially those whose homes are in Kowloon, cannot be too much emphasised. Where can any women put in spare hours after offices are closed, whilst waiting for some other engagement. Where in the centre of Hong Kong can she sit and write a letter or read a magazine without being under an obligation to order some refreshment?

Attractive Premises Secured.

The Women's International Club has secured attractive premises—the 6th floor and roof of the National Commercial and Savings Bank, corner of Des Vaux Road and Lee House Street.

Women of all races and creeds will be welcomed as members. All that is asked of them is that they should bring to the Club a spirit of friendliness. In return the Club will offer many attractions. It will be presided over by Miss N. E. Elliott who has made so many friends in the Colony. Under her sympathetic guidance and with her in addition $20,000 for initial expenses, viz., structural requirements, equipment and Budget difference for at least two years.

We have received great consideration and encouragement from the Chairman and Directors of the National Commercial and Savings Bank, and much valuable assistance from Dr. and Mrs. Kotewall.

Success Depends Upon Wide Responses.

It is hoped that in time the Club will be self-supporting. This depends entirely upon the measure of response which is given to it. We are strengthened in our confidence in our enterprise by the fact that we are working hand in hand with the two leading organizations for women in this city. The Helena May Institute and the Chinese Y.W.C.A. Their Committees realize that in addition to their own work a centre in the heart of the City is an absolute necessity owing to the development of women's work and needs in the Colony.

The following welcome letters have been received from Mrs. J. H. Wood (Chairman, Helena May Institute) and Miss F. C. Woo (President, Chinese Y.W.C.A.).

Helen May Institute, Hong Kong, November 26, 1932.

Dear Mrs. Southern,
I hear that you are about to announce to the public the formation of the International Club, and I write at once to say that we at the Helena May Institute shall all watch its development with friendly interest and sympathy.

There is plenty of room for the new institution, its success will not meet in any way adversely upon the Clubs and Societies already existing in the Colony.

You have admitted me to your preliminary Committee and I have

A.D.C. PRODUCTION TO-NIGHT

PAYMENT DEFERRED AT THE STAR, KOWLOON

To-day, Saturday, December 3 will mark the opening night of Jeffery Dell's famous play "Payment Deferred," by the Hong Kong A.D.C. at the Star Theatre, Kowloon. Circumstances attendant upon the closing of the Theatre Royal are mainly responsible for the change of venue, but our local amateurs are not altogether strangers to the comfortable little playhouse across the water. A few years ago they were given very hearty reception by residents of the Mainland and we have no doubt the present production will be similarly received.

Last evening, the talented producer, Mrs. E. Grossman, put the cast through their first paces and generally gave the finishing touches to the work which promises to do her and all concerned the greatest credit.

Playgoers who enjoyed "The Middle Watch," "Dear Brutus," etc., will be glad to renew their acquaintance with such tried favourites as Margaret Birt, Oscar Eager, Veronica Butterfield, S.M. West, Eric Brooks, R. H. Charles and J. Reade, while talent fresh to the Hong Kong stage will be found in Hilda Arnold, Z. McKinley and Sydney Green who come to us with good records of dramatic achievement in other climes.

The play will start promptly at 8.15 p.m. to-night and on the nights of 6th, 8th, 9th and 10th; and those who have not already done so are advised to make an early application to the Anderson Music Co. for seats.

"The Chinese Y.W.C.A. is very much in sympathy with the proposed Blue Triangle International Women's Club seeing that the increasing number of women of various nationalities entering the business life of the city, the work of meeting their special needs was making a down town centre a necessity. Miss Elliott who has carried the responsibility for this work of the Y.W.C.A. including Employment Bureau and International contacts is being spared to be organizing Secretary and this we hope will ensure close co-operation between the two Associations and that the link will be a stimulus to both."

"The Pre-organisation Committee has given this much needed venture a truly inspiring lead and we wish the Committee all the success they deserve, and we hereby pledge them our loyal co-operation and support."

(Sd.) F. C. Woo.

We have already secured keen co-operation of a number of women of all nationalities but it is impossible to approach individually every woman resident of this Colony. We hope that all who are interested in our scheme will communicate with us to bring their quota of comradeship and sympathy to the Club.

Every woman who lends her support to the Women's International Club while enjoying additional comforts in her daily life will learn the point of view of others and contribute to unity and understanding among women and nations.

CECIL

There was a very large gathering at the Hotel Cecil last night when a Charity Ball was held in aid of the Hong Kong Society for the Protection of Children.

After the Hon. Sir Shou-son Choy had delivered his opening address in which he stressed the good work undertaken by the Society and the need for support from all sections of the community, dancing commenced, music being provided by the Choro Band. Many couples took the floor and dancing was carried on to a very late hour.

ATTEMPTED DROWNING OF TWO CHILDREN

STARTLING EVIDENCE DISCLOSED AT CENTRAL MAGISTRACY

MOTHER OF CHILDREN TELLS HER STORY

The hearing of the case in which Fung Po is charged with attempting to drown two children was continued before Mr. Schofield at the Central Magistracy yesterday, when evidence of an intimate nature was given by different witnesses.

Inspector F. Shaftain, who prosecuted for the police, called Dr. G. V. A. Griffith, Medical Officer in charge of the prison hospital at Victoria Gaol. Witness said he had kept the defendant under observation for over two weeks, and found that he had not behaved in any way that would lead him (witness) to believe he was insane. Defendant had, however, displayed considerable emotion when speaking of the removal of his son from his own custody. Chiu Yee Mui, the kit fat wife of the defendant, then gave evidence that about seven years ago her husband took a concubine. She then left him and went to live with her brother. There were two daughters of the marriage. "I had no quarrel with him and no formal deed of separation was made."

Girl's Evidence.

Before putting the mother of the two children in the witness box, Inspector Shaftain made a successful request to the Magistrate that the Court be cleared.

Chan Li Ching testified that she was the concubine of the defendant and had two children, a girl aged 6 and a boy aged 3. When she married the defendant he was employed in the Public Works Department and remained there for about two years after their marriage. He then left the P.W.D. and shortly afterwards witness gave birth to a daughter.

Supported Family.

For the past six years, with the exception of a period of six months in 1931, when the defendant worked for the Dollar Steamship Company, witness had supported the family by teaching at school. In times of dire necessity she had pawned several of her belongings, and had sometimes received assistance from her parents.

In April last, witness went on to say she went to the offices of the Secretariat for Chinese Affairs and lodged a complaint against her husband because he threatened and ill-treated her.

She again went to the S.O.A. in May and told the officer that her husband had taken all his own belongings and left her. In August she again laid a complaint with the S.C.A., and round about September, through the introduction of a school mate who was successful in obtaining a position as cashier in the cafe called "Jimmy's Kitchen."

"Would Put Her to Death."

Witness then related how her husband introduced himself to her employer, Mr. A. Landau, as being her uncle. When witness repulsed the advances of her employer, her husband struck her, and said he would put her to death if she did not comply. He was to pay her $30 a week, and in addition, he gave her husband $150 with which to buy furniture for the house. Under protest, she lived with her employer for about five weeks during which time her husband, who still claimed to be her uncle, was constantly on the premises.

"On every occasion on which I received cheques from my employer, I handed them to my husband who cashed them. I never received any of the money," said the witness.

Husband's Accusation.

A few days after leaving Morrison Hill Road, she again went to the S.O.A. and petitioned for a separation from her husband because he had now acquired the habit of hitting her on any pretext. When her separation order was approved of by the S.C.A. on October 29, and she was given the custody of the children, her husband accused her of having a lover. After her separation she went with her children to the home of her mother.

Witness then told of her visit to the S.C.A., when she reported how her husband had thrown the children into the harbour. Defendant exclaimed that the story was an entire concoction.

Mr. Landau, proprietor of the cafe, said he took Chan Li Ching on as cashier in his cafe, and shortly afterwards met the defendant at her house, where the defendant told him she was his niece. Witness then gave evidence in corroboration of the girl's story.

The hearing of the case was adjourned to Monday at 11.30 a.m.

LOCAL PROBATES

Estate of $87,600 was left by Wong Ying, alias Wong Yuk Chi, alias So Wong Chi, who died at 3, Chanery Lane, Hong Kong, in the earlier part of the year. Probate was given to Mr. H. K. Woo, Solicitor, and to Mr. So Ming Shin, Clerk, of 43, Graham Street.

Chan Ho Ching, of 30, Yuk Sau Street, left estate valued at $71,000, the probate of which has been granted to his widow Chan Wong Shi, alias Chan Shing Hing.

William Alfred Duce, late of the Matilda Hospital, who died, intestate on March 21, left estate valued at $3,400. Letters of Administration has been granted to Mr. D. J. Lewis.

ARRESTED WOMEN JUMP BAIL

Three women who were arrested following a raid on a Wanchai flat by the Police were jumped their bail while awaiting appearance before the Court. The women were told before being released that they were to report themselves to Police Headquarters but failed to do so.

The question of the confiscation of bail came up before the Court yesterday, and it was decided not to confiscate the bail (of $50 each) until Inspector A. V. Baker of the vice squad had made further attempts to find the women. The girls were reported to be from former establishments in Spring Garden Lane.

BRITISH REPLY TO U. S. NOTE

HAS LITTLE IMPRESSION ON CONGRESS

FURTHER PROTECTION MEASURES LIKELY

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

LONDON, Dec. 2.

Seldom has there been such unanimity of London Press opinion on a major issue as is revealed in this morning's comments upon Britain's Debt Note to the United States, which clearly shows that the British taxpayer is already bearing a burden of internal debt on account of her allies comparable to that which would fall upon the American taxpayer if the whole of the debt due to America was remitted.

BRITISH PRESS COMMENT

Typical comments are:

Morning Post.—The Note is a masterpiece of clarity, conciseness, and compelling logic.

Daily Mail.—The United States must decide whether the world will be thrust back into chaos.

Daily Herald.—This is not the special pleading of a debtor anxious to avoid a legal obligation, merely cold stern fact.

Daily Telegraph.—The Note is a careful unimpassioned statement of the realities of the tragic book-keeping of the war. It is no collusion effort of America's debtors.

News-Chronicle.—It is difficult to believe that this "devastating" Note will not considerably affect American opinion.

Financial Times.—The Note courteously offers a choice between chaos and common sense.

Times.—It is a plain tale in plain language. An unanswerable case is set out with great skill and restraint.

Daily Express.—(Sounding the only note of dissent.) A Note remarkable for its clarity and cogency. The one regret is that it does not say we cannot pay. The Government means to turn its back on its own case and scrape up the funds to meet the ruinous demand.

CONGRESS NOT IMPRESSED

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—The renewed British request for postponement of the December 15th

FRANCE WAITS WITH CONFIDENCE

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

PARIS, Dec. 2.

THE French Government renews its "instant and naturally reflected request" for the suspension of the December 15th payment, and awaits President Hoover's decision "with confidence." In a debt Note to the United States now published, the Note does not say what France will do if her request is rejected, but holds out a threat of a collapse of the Lausanne Agreement.

stalment of the war debt apparently made little impression to-night on Congress. Republican and Democratic leaders clung to their previous positions and also predicted the defeat of any proposal to create a Debt Commission.

Senator Watson, the Republican leader, said to-day that he does not think there is any chance of postponement, cancellation, reduction, revision, evasion of the December payment, or revival of the Debt Funding Commission.

Democrats Opposed to Postponement

Senator Robinson, the Democratic leader, who is just back in Washington from a conference with Mr. Franklin Roosevelt, said that the Democrats generally were opposed to postponement. A definite policy would be formulated when President Hoover's recommendations are received.

Senator Byrne, another prominent leader in Congress circles, who may be taken as reflecting a strong body of opinion, said he did not believe that any statement of financial difficulties from abroad would alter in the slightest degree, the fixed opinion of the House and Senate.

Mr. Collier, the chairman of the House of Representatives Ways and Means Committee, said he did not favour any extension of the moratorium, adding that any suspension of payments would only make it more difficult to collect subsequently.

[BRITISH WIRELESS SERVICE.]

Not Asking too Much

That Britain is not asking the United States to make a greater sacrifice than Britain has already made is one of the points stressed in the second war debt Note handed to Mr. H. L. Stimson to-day. The true interests of both countries, the Note declares, lie in co-operation for the revival of world trade, and war debts and reparations must be held chiefly responsible for the present crisis.

Suspension of Payment Essential

The suspension of the December payment is essential to enable consideration of the whole question in a proper atmosphere of calm and concentration. Pointing out the distracting effect of the transfer of such a large sum at present the Note shows that the only practicable method of payment would be gold from the reserves of the Bank of England which are none too large already.

The request for postponement is based on the profound conviction that the resumption of the old war debt payments would have disastrous consequences upon every nation, not excluding the United States.

Anglo-American discussion would be fruitful for the revival of world prosperity, and the Note offers to consider, in conjunction with the United States, any convenient method of arranging for the postponement of the debt payment, which would materially improve the prospects of success.

An Alternative

The alternative would appear to be a restriction of imports from America and the reopening of the Lausanne Agreement, so that the whole system of European confidence, now precariously balanced, would fall to the ground.

TEXT OF NOTE

The Note says, that the causes of the present world depression may be manifold, but war debts and reparations have been one of the major causes.

While in some respects it may be difficult for Governments to remedy the world's troubles, certain steps are clearly within their powers and their responsibility.

The vast requirements for the purposes of the Great War far exceeded and normal means of payment, and could only be financed by loans from producing countries. These were taken not in money but in goods.

Loans made to the Allies by the United States, Britain and France together reached the colossal total of over $4,000,000,000.

For a time, payment of reparations and war debts was rendered possible by the flow of investment capital from the United States to Continental Europe.

False Prosperity

But the prosperity of the years 1923 to 1929 was largely illusory. Towards the middle of 1931 something like panic prevailed. Since then, the world has been living under repeated shocks which have completely undermined the confidence on which the system of private investment depended.

Currencies are threatened with instability, if not with collapse, and the controls and restrictions intended to remedy the trouble have merely aggravated it.

Unbalanced Budgets

Everywhere taxation has been ruthlessly increased and budgets are in deficit or are balanced with ever-increasing difficulty. The world cannot even begin to consider how to restore the monetary mechanism without which the modern world cannot effectively conduct its daily life, until the causes undermining confidence, have been removed.

One of the most important of these is the system of inter-Governmental debts. These debts differ radically from commercial loans raised by foreign Governments for productive purposes. Such productive loans are self-liquidating, but reparations and war debts represent expenditure on destruction. Like the shells on which they were largely spent, these war loans were blown to pieces and have produced nothing to repay them.

Only Form of Payment

In the long-run, international debts can only be paid in the form of goods or services.

Creditors, insofar as they have adopted a commercial policy, preventing payment in goods, have compelled their debtors to pay in gold.

BONUS ARMY ON THE MARCH

HUNGER STRIKERS CONVERGE ON WASHINGTON

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1. WASHINGTON is again threatened with a repetition of the ugly scenes which accompanied the siege of Congress by War Bonus Veterans a few months ago.

The Bonus Army is again on the march, and a threat by their leaders to force their way into the grounds of the Capitol was announced by a delegation which was received to-day by Mr. Garner, the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the Vice-President-Elect.

"Hunger-marchers" are now converging on Washington from different parts of the country to the number of some thousands of men, who are demanding the immediate payment of the bonus to war veterans.

Mr. Garner informed the advance party, which sent the delegation to him, that the marchers would not be permitted to parade in the grounds of the Capitol.

The Vice-President, Mr. Charles Curtis, refused to receive the delegation.

BRITISH COTTON TRADE

LITTLE PROGRESS TOWARDS RECOVERY

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

LONDON, Dec. 1.

INDICATIONS that little if any progress towards recovery has been made in the past 12 months by the cotton industry are contained in the Cotton Trade Statistical Bulletin issued to-day.

Reviewing the world position of the cotton industry, the Bulletin states that unemployment in the spinning section of the Lancashire industry remains at about the level of a year ago, while there has been a considerable drop in the number of weavers employed.

The drop continues although activity in the spinning section has recovered since the November stoppage.

The usual seasonal increase is still wanting.

Italy is the only country which has failed to show recent increase in cotton activity. The Indian industry is working at a much higher level than it was a year ago.

The French industry has showed the biggest improvement in European weaving activity.

The export of yarn and piece-goods in most countries have showed the seasonal increase, but to a much lesser degree than in 1931.

RAILWAY CRISIS IN IRELAND

THE GOVERNMENT INTERVENES

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

DUBLIN, Dec. 1.

GOVERNMENT intervention in the railway crisis, at the request of the Labour Party, has considerably improved the prospects of a settlement.

The railwaymen a few days ago decided to strike on Monday next as a protest against the proposed ten per cent. wage cut.

Mr. Sean Lemass, Minister of Industry and Commerce, has already interviewed both sides, and it is likely that the Government will temporarily assist the railwaymen, as it has subsidised other sufferers from its immediate economic policy.

TEA RESTRICTION SCHEME

Toasts were proposed and honoured with much enthusiasm, and glowing tribute was paid to the services of the departing member.

GERMANY'S FOREIGN POLICY

VON NEURATH NOT YET GOING TO GENEVA

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

BERLIN, Dec. 1.

BARON von Neurath, Foreign Minister in the von Papen Government, is likely to retain that office in any new Cabinet formed.

He is not, however, going to Geneva to participate in the Manchurian debate or the disarmament talks until the new German Cabinet has been formed, which may not be until next week.

RAMON NOVARRO'S NEW SONG

FEATURE OF "HUDDLE" AT QUEEN'S

A picture in which Ramon Novarro appears would not be complete without a song. For his new starring feature, "Huddle," which will be shown at the Queen's Theatre to-morrow he sings a ballad titled "A Yuc-Chella," an Italian composition by Teffi. The melody of love songs for romantic scenes between the Latin star and Madge Evans, leading lady in the production. The words are quite intimate and when translated as part of the scene were discovered to be better than any dialogue that could be written into the script. Novarro accompanies himself on the guitar during the song.

Gay Student Life

"Huddle" is a story of modern university life in one of the leading educational centres of America, and contains many scenes of student life reminiscent of Novarro's famous "The Student Prince". The supporting cast includes Madge Evans, Una Merkel, Ralph Graves, John Arledge and Frank Albertson.

Sam Wood applied his experience with such college pictures as "One Minute to Play" and "So This is College" to directing the production.

FURTHER FIGHTING IN MANCHURIA

JAPANESE ADVANCE CONFIRMED

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

TSINGTIAN, Dec. 2.

THE rapid advance of the Japanese forces in the campaign against General Su Ping Wen is confirmed. The main body of the Japanese Army has now occupied Chalanlan.

The Japanese are now continuing their drive with the next objective set as Hsiangan. A column of infantry and cavalry left Chalanlan yesterday.

Sharp Encounters

Brief communications report street fighting in Chalanlan prior to the occupation of the city by the Japanese advance guards, while two sharp encounters occurred nearby.

The Japanese claim that the Chinese left two hundred dead in the various fields of encounter, but do not make mention of the losses suffered by the attackers.

According to unofficial reports, Japanese aircraft co-operating with the land forces, are participating in the pursuit and have hurled the flight of the "imangonta" into the mountains.

Soviet Mediation

Tokyo, Dec. 2. According to an official despatch from Moscow, the Soviet has agreed to comply partly with the Japanese request to try and persuade General Su Ping Wen to negotiate.

INDIAN COTTON SCHEME

GREATER USE IN BRITAIN

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

LONDON, Dec. 2.

IN concert with trade organisations in Lancashire, the Government has appointed a committee under Sir Richard H. Jackson to promote the greater use of Indian cotton in Britain.

The appointment of the Committee arises out of the Ottawa agreement.

THOUSANDS ARE BUYING HOUSES

SIX-FOLD INCREASE IN BRITISH BUILDING FUNDS

London.—Eight hundred thousand persons are at the present time acquiring their homes with building society assistance or are being assisted to purchase property as an investment.

Sir Harold Bellman used those figures to illustrate the remarkable progress of home-ownership in recent years when he lectured to the Incorporated Secretaries' Association on the practice and procedure of building societies.

Building societies, he said, had their roots deep in history, so much so that ingenious historians boasted of fruitful researches in the records of ancient China. The first authenticated record of a building society, in the modern sense, went back to 1781, and the place of origin was Birmingham.

There were now 1,013 societies in this country, and at the end of 1931 their total assets amounted to £210,000,000.

Since 1913 building societies have capital and deposits have experienced a six-fold increase," Sir Harold said.

Saving Margins Increased

"First, our working population has, on the whole, experienced an increase in economic well-being as compared with pre-war days. Secondly, the appreciable decline in the price level has provided many with an unaccounted benefit, and thus increased the margin for saving. Thirdly, the societies have tended to attract the more substantial investor, especially during the periods of cheap money which have ruled in the past year or two.

"At the end of 1931 the societies' mortgage assets were £200,000,000, equivalent of 85.9 per cent. of their total assets. During the past three years the societies have advanced an average of £35,000,000, the total amount advanced during the post-war period being no less than £200,000,000. The size of the 1,013 societies varied widely. Only fifty-two had total assets exceeding £1,000,000, while the number with assets exceeding £10,000,000 was only nine. "There is a notable tendency for new business to gravitate towards larger societies," said Sir Harold, "and this tendency will probably be also evident in the future."

BANDITS BUSY ON YANGTSE

S.S. IPING FIRED ON

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

HANKOW, Dec. 2.

WHILE passing through the Yangtze Rapids the S.S. Iping, which arrived at Hankow yesterday, reports that she was heavily fired on thirty-five miles below Ichang. Several of the crew are reported to have been killed or wounded.

MR. PEPYS IN HONG KONG

26th.—Up betimes and trimmed myself. This day I do notice particularly how increased is one's morning energy after going early to bed.

I having last night dined with Mr. Ken and his pretty lady and back very early to the Club. To the Office where all is soon ordered and after my luncheon where we do play at Cricket with the Kowloon Club. But there our strikers are sadly at a standstill to play the bowling and I am mighty pleased to find that I do get the most notches though in truth it is a shame to be pleased over so small a thing, and I doubt I may be hearing my second childhood. Yet I had supposed that childhood was free from rheumatism. After the match, did drink a flaggon of ale with Mr. Lual and Mr. Goodwin in their fine new Pavilion, and indeed it was most hard to tear myself away betimes, yet I had need as I was to dine upon the Banks with a friend. Played bridge after a pleasant dinner and won a few florins at Auction for I do find that Contraband do make but slow head here, save among the Ladies who are ever amorous of some new thing, and to find it to be a bigger gamble, and so more acceptable. Home and so to bed.

27th, Lord's Day.—This day lay late and after I had broken my fast I fell to washing of a silk pull-over. But Lord! to see how much ends do come from a handful of Lux, so that I was nearly pushed out from my room by them. Made a pretty good matter of it, but am at a standstill to know how to cope with the laddering. Later to Kwai-tee where I find everything in the best possible order, and I doubt not that the flowers there will be even beyond those last season. I do little wadding but win a little when Mrs. Pearson wins the Ladies' race, and indeed I much marvel at the skill of all these pretty Ladies in riding. Home, and sit late after dining with Creed talking of the Lytton report. Anon comes Colonel George who tells us that the Army do beat the Navy at Cricket, where, at we do remove him for playing upon a Sunday. Yet, as Mr. Povy says, who joins us, after all there be little difference between horse-racing and playing at Cricket.

28th.—Up betimes and to my office where I am mighty busy ordering my papers, and I sharply rebuke my typist for that I find traces of lip-stick upon the letters. So the silly wench bursts into tears and I at much pains to console her. But upon reflection, I am not assured it was not done of set purpose. Later upon the Clubbe Verandah I fall into talk with Mr. Lord of Sandwich, Mr. Ashby and some others, and I did express my wonder that certain Oxford undergraduates did welcome and assist the hunger marchers, and did carry a red flag before their procession. To which Mr. Ashby replies that he now for the first time understands Cambridge's sequence of victories in so many branches of the more manly sports, for the pursuit of Communism doth so often indicate an unhealthy mind in an unhealthy body. Yet upon the whole I do feel much doubt that these young men be other than the dregs of the University, which all great foundations have.

29th.—This day with two pretty ladies to a preview of a picture called Lady Linton wherein Mrs. Joan Crawford acts to my greatest pleasure and a very fine story it is. Robert Montgomery plays too, and whenever he did appear the two wenchies did forbear to eat their sandwiches the better to enjoy him, and I do believe that at the present he is the most popular of all film actors with women. Yet so good was the show that I do make up my mind to see it later at the Queen's Picture House. Reading this day in the news sheets I do find still more letters upon a quarrel that did take place some time ago over the matter of a handicap at a Tennis Tournament. As to who it was or where it took place I know not, but, as I tell Creed later, it must be a pretty poor sport where in its devices cannot take a beating without reaching for a prize.

That one should express his view pretty opinionate within his privacy is also evident in the future."

INSURANCE COYS. THREATENED

DARE-TO-DIE CORPS SEND THREATS

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

SHANGHAI, Dec. 2.

THE violent agitation arising from the attitude of insurance companies towards Chapei claimants has taken a very serious form, which is viewed by the police with the utmost gravity.

Threatening letters have been sent to the three leading British insurance companies in Shanghai, demanding the immediate settlement of all claims in connection with the war devastated property in Chapei.

The letters were accompanied by live rounds of rifle ammunition.

The senders, in making the demand, threaten to bomb the offices of the companies concerned if their demand is not met.

Written in Chinese, the letters emanate from the so-called "Prepared-to-Die Group of Calamity Sufferers of Shanghai."

Not Covered

It may be recalled that the damage claims have not been paid as the policies issued did not include a cover for war risks.

This is the first time in local history that this form of organised terrorism has been directed against foreign firms.

NO DIRECT NEGOTIATIONS

DENIAL OF JAPANESE RUMOURS

NANKING, Nov. 27.

Mr. T. V. Soong, Acting President of the Executive Yuan, and Mr. Lo Wen Kan, Minister for Foreign Affairs, received the diplomatic representatives of America, Great Britain, France, Germany and Italy at Mr. Soong's residence this morning. It is learned that in the course of the conversation, Mr. Soong dispelled the rumour assiduously circulated by Japanese agents that there is a growing tendency for the Chinese Government to favour direct negotiations with Japan.

Mr. Soong drily remarked that the same rumour is usually repeated whenever the Manchurian issue receives serious attention at Geneva. He added that the issue is now squarely up to the League, which has to decide not only the future of the Three Eastern Provinces, but also the principle of the sanctity of treaties and the very existence of the League itself.—Kuo Min.

Clubbe I do understand. But there it should end. Creed tells me the game is now permitted in our Public Schools instead of Cricket and I am sorry for it. For it involves selfishness rather than team work, as in Cricket and Football. This might turns somewhat cold.

30th.—This day much colder and I do on my thicker coat, and to my office where I find the risen exchange do sadly deplete the number of florins I do draw. Reading in the news sheets, I find some controversy as to the playing of the National Anthem at the end of all picture shows and plays. And to my mind it were indeed well to omit it for I am assured that all the Proprietors do play it partly because they fear to be thought unpatriotic but more to signal to the audience that the time has come when they must leave the theatre. But if it is played, then should all respect be shown by those who are not so ignorant as to know no better. In France there seems some scandal of an Aviatique Company, and in eight years I learn that they do lose one hundred and seventy-eight planes, ninety-seven pilots and one hundred and three passengers, and I am strengthened in my belief that this commercial flying is not so safe as some would have us believe.

1st December.—A fine day but I am at a standstill to find I have taken a rheum in my head, though how I come thereby I know not. I see in the news sheets that from the library of Columbia University a valuable manuscript of Guy Mannering has vanished, but I doubt not it has not been stolen but merely taken by someone as a souvenir of his old College friend Sir Walter. Died out, but my rheum lay heavy upon me and so pretty early to bed with a hot glass of strong water.

2nd December.—To the office betimes but my rheum intrudes, and I cannot express my view pretty opinionate within his privacy is also evident in the future."

MILE AND HALF RECORD THREATENED

LIBERTY BAY LIKELY TO BE EXTENDED IN TO-DAY'S MAIN RACE OVER THAT DISTANCE

WOODLAND STAG AND WOTIN TO MEET OVER FIVE FURLONGS: CLOSE RACE PREDICTED

[By "MORNING DEW."]

To-day looks very much like a 'favourites' day at Happy Valley and unless the rain comes along and changes the going, I am afraid favourites will come home in regular succession.

The main item on the programme, of course, is St. Andrew's Stakes over a mile and a half. The race is likely to draw some of the best ponies in training at the moment, and although there appears to be nothing among the entries to give Liberty Bay a race, Hotman and Wild Life can be fully depended upon to extend Mr. Dunbar's "crack-jack." The record for the mile and half is quite likely to be lowered.

For the first time since Australian ponies were introduced into Hong Kong, a five-furlong sprint event will be held. The ex-Champion, Woodland Stag, starting in the Rooty Hill Handicap "A" Class against Wotin and Evening Star and although he is conceding thirty-five pounds in weight to Wotin, he is sure to put up a good race. Wotin is very fit at the moment and is not likely to go under without a great fight, the more so since he is a demon over five furlongs.

Manna Favourite for "B" Class Race.

The race for "B" Class Australian ponies is also over five furlongs and although the field here is sure to be very big, Manna appears to have the biggest claim at the moment.

The "Ewo" Handicap.

The sport starts with an unofficial race over a mile where the handicapping has been done not only by weight but also by distance. On looking over the handicaps, I notice The Sheldrake and The Curlew are both allotted 300 yards. Although these ponies will be carrying 185 pounds and 100 pounds, respectively, a handicap of 300 yards in a mile is a bit too much and I will be surprised if these two are overhauled by the scratch pony, Estrellita, ridden by Mr. Frost.

The only other entry with any chance appear to be Grey Dawn, Mr. F. A. Pollock's mount. This pony has a 100 yards concession from scratch and has 170 pounds to carry.

Rooty Hill Handicap.

There are only four entries for this race and I understand that The Griffe is most starting. Woodland Stag is sure to start a hot favourite, but with 170 pounds on the saddle and with such a worthy speedster as Wotin to contend with, it is not at all certain that Woodland Stag will win, the more so since Wotin has only 135 pounds to look after and is in the pink of condition. I expect a close race, but Mr. Frost's jockeyship is sure to count in this race and I nominate his mount to win.

Mark Handicap.

This race for "C" Class ponies is very open and I should not be surprised to see any of the following win it: Navy Hall, Mon Talisman, California, Bistre, Adam and Deveron.

Of this lot Navy Hall appears the best as he ran a very good third to Don and Laura Star at fortnight ago. Mon Talisman is in at a comfortable weight and should make the favourite go all out if he is going to win. California and Bistre have some very good track form to back their chances and I should not be in the least surprised if California won this race. Bistre has only 140 pounds to look after and that might prove to be the undoing of Navy Hall and the others. Deveron is shaping very well these days and might reward his supporters with a substantial dividend to-day while Adam has 140 pounds is not a bad bet at all.

Liberty Bay.

Nothing can beat Liberty Bay in the big race of the day, although both Wild Life and Hotman can get very near. Wild Life, I am told, can do the mile and a half in 3.03 and Hotman has actually done this distance at 3.05, I think. If Liberty Bay can beat these figures, and I am sure he can, he will win to-day. The record of 3.04.1 by Sitting Bull is not to be overlooked, the more so as Sitting Bull is starting in to-day's race to defend his record!

Pertshire Handicap.

This race for "D" Class candidates over six furlongs has drawn no fewer than 20 entries, but I think notwithstanding this, the race will be a tussle between Festival Eve and Orlando. Festival Eve ran beautifully at Fanling a week ago and is not likely to disappoint this afternoon. Orlando also ran a beautiful race the last time he was out and six furlongs is certainly more to his liking than the mile, which he won. Mr. Charles is riding Festival Eve and although this might mean starting at a few pounds more than the weight allotted by the handicapper, the pony ought to win. After Orlando, I like the chances of Wakefield and if he does not start, I should pick on The Plover.

Googes Handicap.

Manna seems to be unbeatable in certain quarters and in fact the pony's chances (after the convincing way in which he accounted for City of Melbourne in Macao) seem to be very good. I do not think, however, that Manna is a "cinch" and for those who have not seen the exercise this week, I can only say that City of Melbourne looks a picture just now, and under Mr. Frost, one of the best judges of pace, he is sure to make a big hit for to-day's race. Lucy Glitters also is not out of this race altogether as although he will be carrying 170 pounds, he is a sprinter of quality and his third in the St. Leger is not to be forgotten. The Rainbow is looking fit but might not prove classy enough.

Glasgow Handicap.

This race over a mile for "B" Class candidates is the most open race of the day and any of the twelve entries can win. Blue Star and Bright Star are both starting, the former under Mr. Caplan and the latter under Mr. Pax. Champagne Bay will be Mr. G. U. da Rosa's mount. Daylight Eve will be started by H. P. Chanson. Fortune Day or The Tiger will be taken out by Mr. Frost, Indiana by Mr. Fung, Valorous by Mr. Fred Roza, Meridian Star by Mr. Laing, Racing Boy at 145 might be taken out by Mr. Butler. Tiana at 140 might have to carry a fairly heavier tockey, but that should not impair the pony's chances. On paper it looks as though there will be a glorious dead heat between several candidates. Bright Star, Racing Bay and Indiana, appear to be the pick of the entries and they ought to finish very well up, whatever happens.

Novices Race.

Gallant Fox (Mr. Noronha up) looks like the thing to back for the last race of the day and although the pony will be carrying top weight, he ought to just about do the trick. City of Shanghai ran very well the last time he was raced and might get very near though with Mr. Carroll riding him, the pony might not like the 161 pounds. Just Imagine is a very good thing for this race and Cabinet Hall also looks as if he will have a lot to say about the result. The race should be a good one with Gallant Fox prominent all the way round.

VICTORIOUS SOCCER TEAM RETURNS

COMMENTS ON THE GAME

A very poor reception awaited the victorious Hong Kong Interport Football Team when they arrived back from Shanghai yesterday morning on board the Dollar liner President Taft. Only a handful of officials and friends were there to greet them.

The Chinese members of the team, together with Mr. Mok Hing Kwai, have prolonged their stay in Shanghai in order to take part in Charity matches with the Combined Chinese Eleven.

When interviewed by a Daily Press representative, Mr. W. E. Hollands, the manager and coach of the team, said that the team were confident of victory right from the outset.

Confident of Victory.

"We told the Shanghai skipper as soon as we arrived that the game was as good as lost as far as Shanghai were concerned."

Commenting on the team, Mr. Hollands said the Hong Kong halves were the best combination on the field, Duncan being outstanding and Pardoe was only a shade less outstanding. The latter, to use Mr. Hollands' own words, "Was as cool as a cucumber." How was an entirely different man and played the game of his life. He led the forwards admirably and never once was off his mettle. He was undoubtedly the best forward on the

HOCKEY

CLUB "A" DEFEAT H.M.S. HERALD.

The Hong Kong Hockey Club "A" team defeated the H.M.S. Herald by three goals to nil on the Navy ground, King's Park, yesterday evening.

Potter (2) and MacIntyre (1) were the scorers for the Club. MacIntyre scored in the first half, and Potter got his two goals in the second half.

Midway Defeat Parthian. In a friendly match at King's Park, the H.M.S. Midway defeated the H.M.S. Parthian by two goals to one.

Suffolk v. Keppel. The H.M.S. Suffolk defeated the H.M.S. Keppel by two goals to one in a friendly match at King's Park. The match was quite even, and the standard of play was quite high.

Mr. Hollands went on to say that the score of 4-3 flattered Shanghai who did not play with anything like their concerted play of former years.

The general manager paid tribute to the brilliant work put in by Wong Mei Shun and Cheng Shu Hong, said that the team played with splendid co-ordination to completely outplay the Shanghai opponents. About 120 people attended the Interport Dinner, when the Shanghai Football Association made a presentation of a silver cigarette case to Mr. Hollands, the manager of the Hong Kong team.

CHINESE FAITH IN
LEAGUETO SETTLE MANCHURIA DISPUTE

SHANGHAI, Nov. 27.
In an interview, Mr. Liu Chung-Chieh, Vice-Minister of Foreign Affairs, who arrived here from Nanking yesterday, expressed the belief that the League of Nations would be able to effect a satisfactory settlement of the Sino-Japanese trouble.

He pointed out that it is a patent and absolutely indisputable fact that China has been the victim of Japanese military aggression.
There can therefore be little doubt that the verdict of the League
would be in favour of China.

In order to vindicate itself, the League must strive to effect a settlement in consonance with the principles embodied in the League Covenant, he said.

The Annam Treaty.

Vice-Minister Liu also intimated that the question of the ratification and enforcement of the Sino-French Treaty re. Annam is nearing solution; the only point which remained to be settled being in connection with details of the Customs tariff re. Annam.

Questioned concerning the possible effect of the American elections upon American policy vis-avis the Sino-Japanese situation, the Vice-Minister said that, in his view,
there is no likelihood of any change
in the traditional American Far Eastern policy, which consists primarily in the maintenance of the Open Door and the preservation of China's sovereignty and territorial integrity.—Kuo Min.

PROPOSED IRON AND STEEL WORKSMR. CHEN INSPECTS
PROBABLE SITE

NANKING, Nov. 27.
Mr. Chen Kung Po, Minister of Industry, proceeded to Fokow yesterday for another inspection of the proposed site of the Government Iron and Steel Works to be established by the Ministry. He was accompanied by a representative of the German syndicate interested in the project and deputies of the Military Affairs Commission and the Ministry of War.

It will be recalled that while the Ministry is in favour of establishing the works at Fokow owing to convenience and other facilities,
the military authorities are in favour of a site at Saddle Mountain in Anhwei owing to strategic reasons. A decision has been pending for some time, but it is hoped that a final agreement will now be reached.—Kuo Min.

HOFEI-LUHO
RAILWAYCONSTRUCTION PLANS COMPLETED

NANKING, Nov. 27.
Plans for the construction of the projected Hofei-Luho and Wuhu-Chapoo Railways are being completed by the National Reconstruction Commission. It is estimated that about $2 million are necessary for the building of each line.

The Hofei-Luho Railway is intended to serve the coal district
south of the Huai River in Anhwei.
Its construction is to be financed partly from annuities received from the Changhsing Collieries in northern Chekiang by the Commission. The Wuhu-Chapoo Railway, on the other hand, will be built by private capital. Both are light railways.

It is understood that engineering operations will commence early next year.—Kuo Min.

RECONSTRUCTION OF DYKESREQUEST THAT FUNDS BE NOT DIVERTED

NANKING, Nov. 27.
In order that maximum progress
may be made in dyke construction and flood prevention work, the Commander-in-Chief's Headquarters
for the Honan-Hupeh-Anhui Bandit-suppression Forces, in a dispatch to the National Economic Council, instructs that funds and revenues earmarked for this work shall not be diverted to other purposes. The dispatch also states that levy of the authorized Customs Surtax, Special Surtax, and Farm
Surtax imposed especially for dyke construction purposes should be

KIAOCHOW-TSINAN
RAILWAYREDEMPTION MEASURES DISCUSSED

NANKING, Nov. 27.
A meeting of the Board of Directors of the Kiaochow-Tsinan Railway was held here yesterday afternoon, when Dr. C. T. Wang,
Chairman of the Board, presided.
Messrs. Ko Kwang Ting, Su Fu Chun, and other members were present.

It is understood that measures for the redemption of the Railway were discussed at length. A report on traffic conditions on the line as well as the railway property holdings was submitted.—Kuo Min.

LEGAL REFORM IN CHINAMINISTRY INVITES CRITICISMS OF THE JUDGES

NANKING, Nov. 27.
The task of legal reform is proceeding quietly and steadily, Dr.
F. T. Cheng, Vice-Minister of Justice, assured a Kuo Min correspondent.

We are attempting just now, Dr.
Cheng stated, to build up an effective "Corpus" of judicial practice and precedents. To this end, the Ministry of Judicial Administration, has recently issued an order requiring judicial officials to submit memoranda from time to time dealing with their experiences acquired in the course of their administration of justice.

With the order, the Ministry forwarded the newly promulgated
"Regulations Concerning the Collection and Compilation of Memoranda of Judicial Experiences."

These regulations provide that judges shall submit written memoranda freely and fearlessly commenting on the merits and demerits of the various features of the existing judicial machinery, such as Court procedure, the conduct and practice of lawyers, prison administration, etc.

The judicial officials are also required to report about such local customs and traditions, public sentiment and morals, and economic conditions which may have a close bearing on the administration of justice. Local difficulties arising from the application of the many new laws are to be reported and possible remedies therefore suggested.

These memoranda from all parts of the country will, we hope, form in time a valuable part of our modern judicial records. The competency of the judges and their fitness for promotion will be assessed by the reports they submit.
Obviously too, these "Judges' Notes," when compiled systematically as we wish them to be done,
will also serve as a most helpful guide for their successors on the bench in the satisfactory conduct of trials and cases.—Kuo Min.

NATIONAL AVIATION
CORPORATIONGENERAL MANAGER
RESIGNS

NANKING, Nov. 27.
The resignation of General Liu Pai Chuan, General Manager of the China National Aviation Corporation, has been accepted by Dr.
Chu Chia Hua, Minister of Communications. His successor will be appointed at a special shareholders' meeting next week.

It is understood that General
Liu, Mr. Yang Chien Ping, and Mr. Huang Nai Shu, who represent the Ministry on the Corporation, will also be relieved of their duties
and other representatives appointed.

Meanwhile, it is announced here
that the projected Shanghai-Tien-tain airmail and passenger service will be inaugurated by the Corporation early next month. Mr.
Nieh Kai I, Assistant Director of the Navigation Department of the Corporation, left for Tsingtau yesterday to make the necessary preparations.—Kuo Min.

REMITTANCES TO JAPAN

MAKING PROFITS FROM YEN'S DEPRECIATION.

Tokyo, Nov. 23.—Japanese abroad and especially those in the United States have been sending large remittances to Japan to be converted into yen at the prevailing low rates, according to bankers here.

In the last year, Japanese living in the United States and the Hawaiian Islands have purchased Yen 250,000,000 mostly through the Yokohama Specie Bank. A considerable amount of the money represents saving of Japanese who expect an ultimate rise in the value of the yen and believe they are making a good investment.

EDINBURGH CASTLE.
Built in the 12th century on a massive rock in the centre of the city, the castles are 450 ft. above sea level in each corner at a point dead in 1745.

If you're wise enough to ask for Johnnie Walker
you've said all that's necessary, for the world
knows no finer whisky.
Its sales, which surpass
those of any other whisky,
are enough indication of its popularity.

Great Britain & Irish Free State (London) 1.35

Europe, other countries (Marseilles for onward transmission by rail) 1.35

The air mail for each country will be landed at the place named in brackets.

THE AIR MAIL SERVICE from SAIGON to EUROPE is weekly. The HONG KONG-SAIGON connection will be maintained by the regular fortnightly sailing of the BRENDH mail steamers and on alternate weeks by any available steamers that can make the connection at SAIGON.

Letters for this route should be marked "Saigon-Marseilles Air Mail Service" and handed in at the G.P.O. or Kowloon Post Office.

Letters and postcards for Europe and South America are forwarded "via Siberia" if so superscribed.

INWARD MAILS.

REGISTERED and PARCEL MAILS are closed 15 minutes earlier than the time given below unless otherwise stated, and where mails are advertised to close at or before 8 a.m. registered and parcel mails are closed at 5 p.m. on the previous day.
